Oxford University Press is the leading publisher of international law scholarship and this superior reputation is reflected in the outstanding quality of the titles offered in our Law Collection. Areas of legal scholarship include comparative, foreign investment, commercial, competition, environmental, refugee, and economic law, as well as legal studies, jurisprudence, dispute settlement, criminal and transitional justice. OUP partners with many prestigious legal organizations and societies to produce top quality journals, ensuring the Law Collection is an essential resource for scholars and practitioners worldwide. Customized packages of specialized subject content such as the International Law Collection are also available for our corporate customers.
The British Yearbook of International Law

The British Yearbook of International Law has become an essential work of reference for academics and practising lawyers. Through a mixture of articles and extended book reviews, it continues to provide up-to-date analysis on important developments in modern international law. It has established a reputation as a showcase for the best in international legal scholarship, and its articles continue to be cited for many years after publication.

American Journal of Legal History

Founded in 1957, the American Journal of Legal History was the first English-language periodical in the field. While retaining its focus on American legal history, it accommodates the enormous broadening of the intellectual horizon of the discipline over the past decade, and is particularly interested in contributions of a comparative, international, or transnational nature.

The American Journal of Comparative Law

Founded in 1952, it is the official journal of the American Society of Comparative Law, publishes quarterly, and is entirely devoted to comparative law – i.e. comparing the laws of one or more nations with those of another or discussing one jurisdiction’s law in order for the reader to understand how it might differ from that of their country.

Journal of Law, Economics, and Organization

Impact Factor: 1.373*
Economics 96/344 – Law 40/147

The Journal of Law, Economics, & Organization is an interdisciplinary journal which promotes an understanding of many complex phenomena by examining such matters from a combined law, economics, and organization perspective. It includes scholarship which draws upon political science, psychology, and sociology, among other fields.

Jerusalem Review of Legal Studies

Jerusalem Review of Legal Studies, published by Oxford University Press in association with the Faculty of Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, is a law journal dedicated to in-depth discussions of important studies in law. Each issue consists of several symposia on a book or a research project, which entail critical comments by commentators and a response by the researcher.

Yearbook of European Law

The Yearbook of European Law seeks to promote the dissemination of ideas and provide a forum for legal discourse in the wider area of European law. It is committed to the highest academic standards, and to providing informative and critical analysis of topical issues accessible to all those interested in legal studies. It reflects diverse theoretical approaches towards the study of law.

The Oxford Journals Collection

Features and Benefits for Libraries

- perpetual access to paid-for content
- access to content dating back to 1996
- subscribe to the entire collection, individual subject packages or a customized selection of titles
- COUNTER – compliant usage statistics
- digital preservation arrangements with CLOCKSS, LOCKSS, and Portico
- licence options available for individual libraries (single and multi-site) and consortia
- compliance with global accessibility standards

*2016 Release of Journal Citation Reports. Source:2015 Web of Science Data

Features and Benefits for Library Users

- access available via IP address or remotely, via Shibboleth (where available)
- integrated searching via PubMed and Google Scholar
- keep informed of the latest research with free email alerting
- downloadable references in multiple formats including EndNote, Zotero, ProCite, BibTex or RefWorks
- fully responsive design for a consistent user experience across devices and operating systems

For more information, a free trial for your library, or a quotation, please contact your library supplier or Oxford University Press:

In North and South America:
jnorders@oup.com | + 1 919-677-0977

Outside North and South America:
institutionalsales@oup.com | + 44 (0)1865 353907

Information is accurate at the time of going to press but is liable to alteration without notice.