My soul, bear thou thy part, triumph in God above, and with a well-tuned heart sing thou the songs of love; let all thy days till life shall end, what-e'er he send, be filled with praise.

Darwall’s 148th by John Darwall (1731–89)
Text: 'Ye holy angels bright' by Richard Baxter (1615–91)
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, praise him, all creatures here below, praise him above, angelic host, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

78 ST ANNE
O God, our help in ages past

Descant and organ part by John Scott

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, be thou our guide while troubles last, and our eternal home!

79a ST CLEMENT (in Ab)
The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended

Descant by David Blackwell

So be it, Lord: thy throne shall never, like earth’s proud empires pass away;

thy kingdom stands, and grows for ever, till all thy creatures own thy sway.

St Clement by Clement C. Scholefield (1839–1904)
Descant by David Blackwell (b. 1961) © 2012 Oxford University Press
Text: ‘The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended’ by John Ellerton (1826–93)
Thy mercy will not fail us, nor leave thy work undone; with thy right hand to help us, the victory shall be won; and then by men and angels, thy name shall be adored, and this shall be their anthem: one church, one faith, one faith, one Lord.
