Commissioned by Marie Anderson and La Jeunesse, and composed for these friends with all the madness I possess

Alice

Words by Sarah Quartel, inspired by Lewis Carroll

SARAH QUARTEL

With distinct character, telling a story \( \dot{\jmath} = 96 \)
playful, like a caucus-race

SOPRANO 1

soprano 2

ALTO

PIANO

“die” should be pronounced as ‘dye’.

© Oxford University Press 2013

Printed in Great Britain indignant!

freely

a tempo

freely
Sister, you'll never guess what I've seen:

I've seen a white rabbit talking to me.

Sister, you'll never guess what I've seen:
I've seen a pack of cards painting a tree.

'Oh, my ears and whiskers!'