The wind off the ocean, the breeze in the trees,

The wind off the ocean, the breeze in the trees,
The ruffle of feathers, a bird on the wing—Fill my heart like they’re singing.
The scent of the pine trees, the dampness of spring, The fragrance of lilac, the memory it brings

Fill my heart
like they're singing.

Here,

like they're singing.

Here,

Here in my heart they're singing.

Here in my heart they're singing.
