Poems by EDITH SITWELL

Music by WILLIAM WALTON

Fanfare

to Constant Lambert

FAÇADE
An Entertainment

Music by

WILLIAM WALTON

Poems by

EDITH SITWELL

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS, MUSIC DEPARTMENT, GREAT CLARENDON STREET, OXFORD OX2 6DP

Photocopying this copyright material is ILLEGAL.
In the pocket of the kangaroo.

Carrying the load and tells that bode of dreamless ease fled she,

When last we wandered this shore?...

"Ah no! For it is cold-hearted December."

'Dead, the leaves that like ass-es' ears hung on the trees When last we wandered this shore?...'
On the holy Sabbath, on the peaceful day!
Said the huntsman, playing on his Cym.
4 Madame Mouse Trots
Dame Souris trotte grise dans le noir – VERLAINE

\( \text{\textcopyright } \text{Music Copyright}\)