Who’s Who & Who Was Who

Anyone who is or was anyone… in their own words

Welcome to a guided tour of Who’s Who & Who Was Who

www.ukwhoswho.com
Who’s Who offers up-to-date information on over 35,000 noteworthy and influential individuals in every area of public life, worldwide. It is seen as one of the world’s most recognised and respected works of reference, containing autobiographical listings of people from around the globe who have an impact on British life, including senior politicians, judges, civil servants, and notable figures from the arts, academia, and other areas.

What makes Who’s Who unique is that each biographee provides the details for their entry, and many include contact details. This online edition is built for biographical searching making it a valuable resource for anyone concerned with British history and culture.

Subscribers to Who’s Who can also choose to subscribe to Who Was Who, which includes the entries of over 100,000 people, now deceased, who were included in previous editions of Who’s Who.
Use the 'Browse' option to discover entries according to their educational background, which clubs they belong to, etc.

Use the quick search box to find anyone by name or search for a text string.

Click 'More search options' or use the 'Search' tab to use the advanced search tool.
On the advanced search page, you can search for an entrant by occupation, age, address, date of birth, education, and more…

…using these flexible options, in a single search you can find female politicians who were educated in London, and have been awarded an OBE!
