Borrowed Words: Selected Figures in Colour

List of figures reproduced here:

Fig. 2.1 Totals of loanwords from the 25 most prolific inputs in OED3 (A-ALZ and M-R).
Fig. 2.2 The most frequent donor languages in OED3 (A-ALZ and M-R), arranged in five charts graded by scale.
Fig. 2.3 All items in OED classified by origin. (i) OED headword entries only. (ii) All lexical items in OED.
Fig. 2.5 New words of all origins as reflected by parts of OED3 so far completed, arranged chronologically.
Fig. 2.6 Loanwords from French, Latin, and French and/or Latin as a proportion of all new words, as reflected by parts of OED3 so far completed.
Fig. 2.8 Totals of loanwords from Scandinavian, French, Latin, and French and/or Latin in the 1000 most frequent words in the British National Corpus, arranged chronologically.
Fig. VI.1 Loanwords as a proportion of all new words in OED3 (A-ALZ and M-R).
Fig. VI.2 Loanwords from Latin and French, and loanwords from all other sources, as a proportion of all new words.
Fig. 15.2 Loanwords from German, as reflected by OED3 (A-ALZ and M-RZZ).
Fig. 15.4 Loanwords from Spanish, as reflected by OED3 (A-ALZ and M-RZZ).
Fig. 15.12 Loanwords from languages of South Asia, as reflected by OED3 (A–ALZ and M–RZZ).
Fig. 15.14 Loanwords from Chinese, as reflected by OED3 (A–ALZ and M–RZZ).
Fig. 15.16 Loanwords from Japanese, as reflected by OED3 (A–ALZ and M–RZZ).

(In all cases, see Borrowed Words for detailed discussion of the data behind these figures and its interpretation. See also Borrowed Words for 36 further figures not reproduced here.)
Fig. 2.1 Totals of loanwords from the 25 most prolific inputs in OED3 (A-ALZ and M-R).
Fig. 2.2 The most frequent donor languages in OED3 (A-ALZ and M-R), arranged in five charts graded by scale.
Fig. 2.3 All items in OED classified by origin. (i) OED headword entries only. (ii) All lexical items in OED.
Fig. 2.5 New words of all origins as reflected by parts of OED3 so far completed, arranged chronologically.
Fig. 2.6 Loanwords from French, Latin, and French and/or Latin as a proportion of all new words, as reflected by parts of OED3 so far completed.
Fig. 2.8 Totals of loanwords from Scandinavian, French, Latin, and French and/or Latin in the 1000 most frequent words in the British National Corpus, arranged chronologically.
Fig. VI.1 Loanwords as a proportion of all new words in OED3 (A-ALZ and M-R).

Fig. VI.2 Loanwords from Latin and French, and loanwords from all other sources, as a proportion of all new words.
Fig. 15.2 Loanwords from German, as reflected by OED3 (A-ALZ and M-RZZ).
Fig. 15.4 Loanwords from Spanish, as reflected by OED3 (A-ALZ and M-RZZ).
Fig. 15.12 Loanwords from languages of South Asia, as reflected by OED3 (A–ALZ and M–RZZ).

Includes loanwords from (in descending order of total of loanwords): Sanskrit, Hindi, Persian, Urdu, Tamil, Bengali, Marathi, Sinhala, Panjabi, Malayalam, Pashto, Tibetan, Telugu, Gujarati, Rajasthani, Assamese, and Nepali. (See Borrowed Words section 15.3.3 for further explanation.)
Fig. 15.14 Loanwords from Chinese, as reflected by OED3 (A–ALZ and M–RZZ).
Fig. 15.16 Loanwords from Japanese, as reflected by OED3 (A–ALZ and M–RZZ).