Our capital, Prague, is famous for its sights. From Charles Bridge you can enjoy the amazing view of the Prague Castle with St. Vitus Cathedral.

Brno is a historic city but visitors often come to see its modern architecture. Villa Tugendhat is a masterpiece of functionalism.

In Český Krumlov you can explore the historic town and castle and watch a play in the unique outdoor theatre with its revolving auditorium.

The baroque Plague Column is a must-see in Olomouc, a lively university town, home of the traditional Academia Film Festival and Flora Exhibitions.

The heart of Telč, often called the Pearl of Renaissance, offers visitors lots of historic sights and trips into the Bohemian-Moravian Highlands.

Píveň is famous for its beer, Pilsner Urquell, but also houses a variety of cultural events: theatre, concerts, exhibitions, street-art performances, etc.

The Šumava, with its peatland flora and wild animals, such as elk and lynx, is the right place for nature lovers, but also for cycling, hiking and skiing.

The west-Bohemian spas are busy all year round. But in summer, during the International Film Festival, Karlovy Vary is bustling with parties and nightlife.

Our capital, Prague, is famous for its sights. From Charles Bridge you can enjoy the amazing view of the Prague Castle with St. Vitus Cathedral.

Brno is a historic city but visitors often come to see its modern architecture. Villa Tugendhat is a masterpiece of functionalism.

In Český Krumlov you can explore the historic town and castle and watch a play in the unique outdoor theatre with its revolving auditorium.

The baroque Plague Column is a must-see in Olomouc, a lively university town, home of the traditional Academia Film Festival and Flora Exhibitions.

The heart of Telč, often called the Pearl of Renaissance, offers visitors lots of historic sights and trips into the Bohemian-Moravian Highlands.

Píveň is famous for its beer, Pilsner Urquell, but also houses a variety of cultural events: theatre, concerts, exhibitions, street-art performances, etc.

The Šumava, with its peatland flora and wild animals, such as elk and lynx, is the right place for nature lovers, but also for cycling, hiking and skiing.

The west-Bohemian spas are busy all year round. But in summer, during the International Film Festival, Karlovy Vary is bustling with parties and nightlife.

Carry on exploring the world with our Oxford Bookworm Factfiles: www.oup.com/elt/maps