James Clements Expert Event

Curriculum Design for Primary School English: Principles and practice

The Oxford Expert Speaker Programme brings the best known experts in education to events across the UK to share new ways of thinking about teaching and learning.

Oxford University Press is delighted to be working with James Clements, and will sponsor the training costs to deliver James' sessions to schools.

Event Agenda:

With the new 2019 Ofsted framework's renewed focus on curriculum, many schools are looking again at the design of their curriculum. This half-day course will introduce some principles and practical examples of curriculum design in primary English, drawn from research and practical case studies of successful schools.

Session 1: Principles of Curriculum Design
Session 2: Practical approaches to Curriculum Design

Further details

Designed for Primary Head Teachers, SLT and Subject Leaders
Duration: Half Day

To book a session

Please contact your local Primary educational consultant

About James Clements

James is an experienced teacher, researcher and education writer who works with schools and local authorities across the UK and further afield to develop the teaching of English. James is the creator of website shakespeareandmore.com and the author of Teaching English by the Book.
Agenda:

Registration

Welcome and Introduction

Session 1: Principles of Curriculum Design

- Helping schools to consider their own principles and vision for their English curriculum
- An introduction to key concepts in curriculum design
- Building the curriculum: content, structure and experiences

Refreshments and Display

Session 2: Practical Approaches to Curriculum Design

- Curriculum vehicles for teaching and learning in English
- Weaving the elements together: case studies of effective curriculum models
- Curriculum planning for your school

Closing Comments and Depart