What would YOU do if you were in charge?

If you were president for a day, what three laws would you pass?

1.

2.

3.

Some questions to think about:
- How would you implement your new laws?
- What do you think would happen if the law was real?
- Why do you think kids might come up with better laws than adults?

On a visit to the US, things take a strange turn for twelve-year-old Ajay when, completely at random and totally by accident, he’s sworn in as the new president.