Beautiful Bananas

Written by Elizabeth Laird
Illustrated by Liz Pichon

A bunch of bananas and a whole heap of fun!

Beatrice is taking a bunch of beautiful bananas to her grandad, but on the way a giraffe flicks them into the stream—splash! How will Beatrice get the bananas back? Find out and, on the way, meet hungry bees, playful monkeys, and even a sneezing elephant.

- As a re-imagining of a traditional African tale, this is a great way to introduce children to cultural diversity and understanding.
- Introduces young children to important issues around food provenance and sustainability.
- The story has a wonderful circularity and is fantastic for exploring story structure with children.

Night Zookeeper: The Elephant of Tusk Temple

WRITTEN BY JOSHUA DAVIDSON
ILLUSTRATED BY BUZZ BURMAN

Welcome to the Night Zoo, an immersive fantasy realm, filled with magical animals.

When Will accidentally creates a mysterious portal during a trip to the zoo, he’s transported into the world of the Night Zoo, and thrust into an incredible adventure.

Joined by his friends, Sam and Riya, Will journeys through a new portal and arrives at the Tusk Temple in search of Maji the time-travelling elephant. But the temple is in danger. The only way to save it is for Will to undergo the Night Zookeeper trial—facing leaps over bottomless caverns, impossible puzzles, and an ultimate test in bravery. Can Will pass the trial and save the day, or is this the end of the Night Zoo?

- An epic world filled with amazing magical creatures—meet Sam the spying giraffe and Maji the time-travelling elephant.
- Three brave heroes, Will, his friend Riya, and Sam the spying giraffe, are up against the fearsome Voids—an army of robot spiders.
- From the creators of NightZookeeper.com, a website that makes learning fun, inspires creativity, and engages children with a magical story.

What’s That in Dog Years?
WRITTEN BY BEN DAVIS
ILLUSTRATED BY JULIA CHRISTIANS

The last woof and testament of Gizmo the Wonder Dog!

George and Gizmo have been best friends forever. Since the day George was born, Gizmo has always been around. But Gizmo’s not getting any younger and George has to face up to the fact that he may not always be around—so he comes up with a plan . . .

George writes Gizmo a bucket list, which is soon up and running. Unlike Gizmo who is totally lazy and demanding to be carried . . .

All the laugh-out-loud humour you’d expect from a Ben Davis book but with added heart and poignancy . . . and a four-legged character you’ll fall in love with!

- A book that manages to perfectly combine a hilarious story with an emotional edge.
- A touching relationship between a boy and his pet that will resonate with readers.
- Illustrated throughout with characterful artwork by Julia Christians.

When powerful spells are broken, an incredible adventure begins

Spell Breathing does not come naturally to Rayne. She loathes the hours of practice, the stacks of scrolls, and the snapping mud grotesques that cover her mother’s precious spell book.

But when she holds the spell book over a fire it is only meant as an empty threat—until she feels the grotesques’ tiny teeth biting into her finger and lets go.

In one clumsy move, her mother’s spells are broken, her village is plunged into danger, and an incredible adventure begins.

• A really original approach to magic gives the book a fresh feel in a classic genre.
• Beautifully written with strong characters and a rich world in which to become immersed.
• Strong themes of family bonds, being true to yourself, and learning who to trust.

‘An enchanting story that crackles with charm and casts a unique spell’

PETER BUNZL, AUTHOR OF COGHEART
'It's such a thrill to find a book that feels as special as The Last Spell Breather. What I loved from the start is that it gave me a real sense of having found a book that is very distinctly itself—that what I was reading, and the world I was exploring, could only be found in this book. It's an unforgettable story about amazing powerful words. I have totally fallen under the book’s magical spell—and I hope that the same will happen to you.'

A Viking Mystery

Join young investigator and shield maiden Alva as she goes a-viking around the medieval world in search of adventure!

Alva clings to her sleeping wolf as the Viking longship pitches and rolls over the North Sea’s crashing waves. Soon she will reveal herself as a secret stowaway, but only when there’s no chance of turning back. This is her opportunity to put her shield maiden spirit to the test—exploring strange new lands, solving mysteries, and most importantly finding her father . . .

• An intriguing and dramatic mystery—written by a passionate Viking expert, Janina Ramirez.
• Turn to the back of the book for Viking facts relating to the story.
• Highly appealing for fans of classic murder mysteries and historical fiction alike.
• With stunning black and white illustrations by David Wyatt.

Born to bake. Happy to help.

Freddie Bonbon is the kindest boy in town. He is also the most amazing baker—he just doesn’t know it! So when the Belville Cake Competition is announced, all his friends and customers encourage him to enter. Everyone wants Freddie to win! Everyone, that is, except rival baker Bernard, who will go to any lengths to make sure Freddie’s showstopper cake is a raspberry-blowing disaster!

• Freddie is a likeable and positive character who promotes the idea that you don’t need superpowers or magic to succeed—you just need to try hard and do your best.
• A book which combines a lively story with a positive message of creativity and kindness.
• A story that taps into children’s love of baking. Turn to the back of the book for a delicious recipe and a glossary of baking terms.
• Gorgeous black and white illustrations throughout.
Mark and Shark: Detectiving and Stuff

WRITTEN BY JOHN DOUGHERTY
ILLUSTRATED BY KATIE ABEY

One boy, one shark, and lots of stuff (and detectiving)!

Mark and Shark are best friends. Mark is great at detectiving and Shark loves doing . . . stuff—so they’re the perfect team to help with any problem, big or small.

When an enormous polar bear needs help with her ice cream business, Mark and Shark are straight on the case—but when Jimmy the Fridge and his gang decide to get involved too, it’s not just the ice creams that are going into meltdown . . .

It’s fast, it’s furious, it’s really, really messy!

• Laugh-out-loud humour with lively and distinctive artwork.
• A story full of anarchic fun and a page-turning adventure.
• Perfect for fans of the Mr Gum and Barry Loser series.

Winnie and Wilbur: The Bug Safari
WRITTEN BY VALERIE THOMAS
ILLUSTRATED BY KORKY PAUL

A marvellous mix of magic and minibeasts!

When Winnie and Wilbur shrink down to discover life in miniature, the bugs in their garden suddenly seem very big indeed. It’s the start of an exciting safari. But when excitement turns to survival, mini Winnie and tiny Wilbur would rather be their right size again. There’s one small problem: teeny Winnie can’t wave her whopping wand . . .

- Children are endlessly fascinated by bugs and minibeasts.
- The sense of scale is awesome: Winnie and Wilbur are seen as if through a magnifying lens.
- The perils of shrinking provides a great theme for the story.

A beautiful story about a boy who helps his grandpa to grieve.

Grandad is grieving. He hides away in his garden. He needs time. But he also needs love. Tibble is full of love and shows Grandad that remembering the people we love can be a wonderful, funny, poignant thing.

- Reassures children that whilst the grown-ups in their life may withdraw in the face of grief, they will come back. They will get better.
- Shows us that death can be something that brings us closer to our loved ones.
- Offers a way into talking about death with children without a religious framework.

Kitty

WRITTEN BY PAULA HARRISON
ILLUSTRATED BY JENNY LØVLIE

Girl by day. Cat by night. Ready for adventure.

Kitty is a superhero-in-training with feline superpowers. She dreams of being just like her superhero mum one day, but she’s still got a lot to learn.

Join Kitty and her cat crew on the rooftops for a series of enchanting adventures by the light of the moon. Here, Kitty will discover that being a superhero is about more than using her special abilities—she must learn to be courageous too. In Moonlight Rescue Kitty braves the heights of the clock tower to rescue a frightened kitten, and in Tiger Treasure Kitty must pursue a cat-burglar with incredible hypnotic powers.

Mee-Ow! Will you answer the call for adventure?

- Enchanting tales starring little superhero-in-training Kitty, beautifully illustrated in two-colour throughout.

- Being a superhero is great, but coming back to your family is pretty special too.

- Purrr-fect for newly confident readers and fans of Isadora Moon.
The kitten’s eyes turned big and round. ‘Then you’re a real superhero?’ ‘I’m still learning,’ said Kitty. ‘And this is my very first adventure!’

The little cat gazed at her solemnly. ‘I trust you! I will hold tight while you jump.’

Kitty got ready, bending her knees and throwing back her arms. Then she made an enormous leap. Her black cape swirled out behind her and for a moment, Kitty felt as though she was flying through the sky. She landed softly on the other side and set the ginger cat.

‘Please, Kitty!’ Pumpkin turned his big blue eyes on her. ‘I promise I won’t touch anything.’

Kitty nodded. ‘All right—but we must be really careful.’ She spotted an open window on the next floor down. ‘There’s a way in over here.’ She took hold of a drainpipe, ready to climb to the ledge below.

‘There was a whooshing noise overhead.

‘MEEEOOW!’ A creature landed heavily on Kitty’s shoulders.

Kitty wobbled, then grabbed the drainpipe to keep her balance. Pumpkin panicked and leapt on Kitty’s feet, pinning it to the ledge with his paws. ‘Eek! Don’t worry, I’ve got you!’
Isadora Moon Puts on a Show

WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED BY HARRIET MUNCASTER

Half vampire, half fairy, totally unique!

Isadora Moon is special because she’s different. Her mum is a fairy and her dad is a vampire and she’s a bit of both.

It’s almost time for the vampire ball, and Isadora can’t wait! There’s just one problem: she’s got to compete in a talent show with the other vampire children. Isadora’s talents aren’t very vampire-y, what if the audience laugh at her? The show must go on, but will Isadora be brave enough to perform . . . ?

• Includes an Isadora-orable activity section to help you put on your own show.

• A totally unique heroine with an out-of-this-world family.

• Perfect for readers who like their magic and sparkle with a bit of a bite.

ALI SPARKES WINNER OF THE BLUE PETER BOOK AWARD

Ali Sparkes was a journalist and BBC broadcaster until she chucked in the safe job to go dangerously freelance. Her first venture was as a comedy columnist on Women’s Hour and later on Home Truths. Not long after, she discovered her real love was writing for children. She has won the Blue Peter Book of the Year Award for Frozen in Time, the Riveting Reads Award for Destination Earth, the Essex Book Award for Car Jacked, and many more.

Everyone’s favourite scarecrow is back in a brand new look.

When John and Susan see the scarecrow standing in the middle of a field in the pouring rain, he doesn’t look that remarkable. Just like any other scarecrow really. But when he turns up at the cottage to warm himself by the fire, they realize that this is a very special scarecrow indeed. The scarecrow’s name is Worzel Gummidge, and he’s about to fill the children’s world with fun and magic.

This welcome new edition of a classic and much-loved story is being published just in time for Worzel’s return to our TV screens.

• A perennial favourite with children everywhere—Worzel Gummidge is an unforgettable character.

• With a TV special airing for Christmas 2019, followed by a new TV series, this new edition will be a welcome reminder of Worzel’s first ever appearance.

• With a fresh, contemporary cover and inside illustrations to give a modern twist to this classic story.

Warrior Monkeys and the Deadly Trap

WRITTEN BY M.C. STEVENS
ILLUSTRATED BY STEVE BROWN

Full-on martial arts action with a cool, graphic look

The Warrior Monkeys are leaders and protectors, always ready to defend against dangerous powers who seek to attack their kingdom. Some of the Warriors are strong and wise. Some, like Suki and Bekko, still have a lot to learn.

A stranger has come to Senshi Castle, claiming to want to learn the ways of the Warrior Monkeys. Can he be trusted? Suki and Bekko’s suspicions are about to lead them into more danger than they can possibly imagine.

• Strong, vivacious, and hugely likeable central character pairing.
• Exciting and dramatic plots that tap into Far Eastern lore and mythology, with plenty of energy and humour.
• Stories that explore martial arts behaviours and strategies: fear, balance, control, discipline, focus, teamwork, leadership, memory, and coordination.
