KEVIN COMIC-MAKING TIPS

VIEWPOINTS
- You can zoom in, and way, way out!
- Flap flap
- Whoa, that's close!
- Hey, where did you go?
- Comet
- Help!
- Mars
- Venus
- Shouting!
- Handy label

Sound effects
- Thought bubble
- Speech bubble

When you draw a speech bubble, first write the words, then draw the bubble!

Have any biscuits?

Have any biscuits?

(Otherwise it can be tricky to squash the words into a bubble.)

Make the tail of the speech bubble point to the speaker's mouth

We read English-language comics left to right, top to bottom. When we read a single panel, we start looking at the top left and our eyes move to the bottom right.

1. Hey there, Kevin!

2. Max, it's you!

Biscuits?
Biscuits!!
How can I get some biscuits?!

Comic Tip: Ask yourself some questions! Where is Kevin? Underwater? On the moon? In a supermarket? At a funfair? Are there any other characters in this story?
