More than one: Super Challenge 4

1. If you look up lorry, you also find lorries. lorry lorries

Lorries is the word for more than one lorry.

If a word ends in -y, then you change the -y at the end to -ies to show that there is more than one.

If you look up monkey, you also find monkeys. Monkeys is the word for more than one monkey.

If a word ends in –ey, then you add –s to show that there is more than one.

What is the word for more than one of the following?

1. butterfly? ............................................. 3. enemy? ..................................................

2. donkey? ............................................. 2. party? ..................................................

2. If you look up leaf, you also find leaves. leaf leaves

Leaves is the word for more than one leaf.

The –f at the end has changed to –ves to show that there is more than one.

Be careful! Not all words that end with –f change in this way to show that there is more than one. Sometimes, you just need to add –s.

Use your dictionary to find the word for more than one of the following:

1. calf ..............................................................
2. roof ............................................................
3. cliff .............................................................
4. shelf ..........................................................
5. half ..............................................................