Look Up Word Webs:

Use the Oxford Primary Thesaurus to fill in the blanks below. Look up the word web for each of the words in bold to help you. There are several words in each word web from which you can choose.

Example: one type of wild flower foxglove

Can you find the names of:

1. one bird which cannot fly?
   - .................................................................

2. one type of dinosaur?
   - .................................................................

3. one part of a medieval knight’s armour?
   - .................................................................

4. one thing you might find in an ancient pyramid?
   - .................................................................

5. two different shades of blue?
   - .................................................................

6. two sports that are played on ice?
   - .................................................................

7. two things you might take to the seaside?
   - .................................................................
   - .................................................................