Tricky Plurals

Did you know that you can use your dictionary to check the plural of words? The plural form is shown after the main word and its part of speech, like this:

fungus noun fungi

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct plural form.

Example: a species of fungus ➔ some poisonous fungi

1. on the bottom shelf ➔ a long line of _____________
2. a sore tooth ➔ a set of false _____________
3. a young female deer ➔ a herd of wild _____________
4. a sharp knife ➔ a set of kitchen _____________
5. holly leaf ➔ a pile of fallen _____________
6. in the first half ➔ both _____________ of the game
7. the feather of a goose ➔ some flying _____________
8. a sloping roof ➔ over the _____________ of the houses
9. a potted cactus ➔ a row of flowering _____________
10. a giant octopus ➔ a sea full of _____________

TIP!
There is a list of some common words with tricky plurals at the back of your dictionary, on page 605.

Look up the words to see if you were right.