Cracking the masculine/feminine business

In the sentences above, the gender of the nouns decides whether you choose pequeño or pequeña (small).

Describe your birthday presents

- Look up the words in the dictionary and check the gender of the Spanish words.
- Complete the sentences, and decide between:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>un masc</th>
<th>una fem</th>
<th>nuevo masc adj new</th>
<th>nueva fem adj new</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Example: hat noun el gorro masc

1. Tengo _______un gorro nuevo_________
2. Tengo ____________________________
3. Tengo ____________________________
4. Tengo ____________________________
5. Tengo ____________________________
6. Tengo ____________________________

Note that many adjectives are the same in the masculine and feminine, e.g. super adjective:

- These exceptions are called 'invariable' in your dictionary. They do not vary or change.
