1. Which one statement in each of the following groups is correct?
   a) A village is a low order settlement.
   b) A village is a high order settlement.
   c) Villages are always very small settlements.
   d) Villages are urban settlements.

   a) Low order services only occur in large towns and cities.
   b) Low order services have high threshold populations.
   c) Low order services have a high range.
   d) Low order services occur in larger numbers than high order services.

   a) Large towns and cities do not have low order services.
   b) Large towns and cities have a few low order services.
   c) Large towns and cities have many low order services.
   d) Low order services only occur in villages.

   a) Small settlements have a large sphere of influence.
   b) In a densely populated area spheres of influence will be smaller.
   c) Spheres of influence will not be affected by physical factors such as relief.
   d) Spheres of influence are not affected by population density.

   a) In wealthy areas spheres of influence will be larger.
   b) If transport is poor spheres of influence will be larger.
   c) If there is a large nearby town the sphere of influence will be larger.
   d) If there is a large nearby town the sphere of influence will be smaller.

   a) Settlement pattern is the shape that a settlement forms on a map.
   b) Settlement pattern is another term for sphere of influence.
   c) Settlement pattern depends on the number of services.
   d) Settlement pattern is another term for settlement hierarchy.

   a) A nucleated settlement is a series of isolated dwellings.
   b) Nucleated settlements are compact, square or circular.
   c) Nucleated settlements are not useful for defence.
   d) Nucleated settlements do not allow people to have easier access to services.

   a) Dispersed settlements form rows.
   b) Dispersed settlements have clustered dwellings.
   c) Dispersed settlements are useful for defence.
   d) Dispersed settlements have scattered dwellings.

   a) Linear settlements develop along roads or rivers.
   b) Linear settlements have scattered dwellings.
   c) Linear settlements are not influenced by transport routes.
   d) Linear settlements have clustered dwellings.