A carpet is a thick, soft material that is put on the floor to cover it.

A carnival is a large party that takes place in the streets.

A caretaker is someone whose job is to look after a building.

A cathedral is a big, important church.

A caterpillar is a small animal that looks like a worm and will turn into a butterfly or moth.

A cathedral is a large, strong building with thick, stone walls.

A cattle is the name for cows and bulls.

Catching is a way to take something from another.

A catalogue is a list of all the things that you can buy from a place, sometimes with pictures of the things.

If you catch something that is moving through the air, you get hold of it. • Try to catch the ball.

If you catch an illness, you get it.

An illness that is catching is easy for one person to catch from another. • measles is a disease that is very catching.

A caterpillar is a small animal that looks like a worm and will turn into a butterfly or moth.

A catalogue is a list of all the things that you can buy from a place, sometimes with pictures of the things.

• Try to catch the ball.

• Take them prisoner. • The police finally caught the bank robbers.

A catalogue is a list of all the things that you can buy from a place, sometimes with pictures of the things.

• Try to catch the ball.

• Take them prisoner. • The police finally caught the bank robbers.

A catalogue is a list of all the things that you can buy from a place, sometimes with pictures of the things.

• Try to catch the ball.

• Take them prisoner. • The police finally caught the bank robbers.

A catalogue is a list of all the things that you can buy from a place, sometimes with pictures of the things.

• Try to catch the ball.

• Take them prisoner. • The police finally caught the bank robbers.

A catalogue is a list of all the things that you can buy from a place, sometimes with pictures of the things.