Chapter 4

The mysterious boy

One night, Robin was on lookout when he saw a boy coming through the woods. Robin jumped out. Immediately the boy pulled out his sword and started to fight.

It was a fierce fight but a fast one. Robin was an expert with a sword and much bigger than the boy.

When he had won, Robin stepped out of the shadows and into the moonlight.

‘You fight bravely,’ said Robin. ‘Would you like to join us and fight the wicked Sheriff?’

Then, to Robin’s surprise, the boy burst into tears.
