Finding your place

In this unit you will make a flow chart, write a letter to a magazine and a detailed description, learn about the ‘the … the …’ pattern, idioms, and abbreviations.

Making a Flow chart

> Fill in the flow chart to describe your most comfortable place. Close your eyes to think about it carefully before you start writing, then fill in as many of the boxes as you can with as much detail as possible.

My most comfortable place

Extension Use your ideas to write a good paragraph with the title My most comfortable place.
Writing

Becoming too American is a text with a great deal of conversation.

- Re-read the text and make a note of the key reactions which lead to a change in events. Write a paragraph to summarise events in the story without using direct speech.

Begin with:

Young Ju is a Korean girl living in America who wants to go to her friend Amanda’s party. Her mother will not let her go. Jung Ju and her mother have a conversation in the kitchen.

- Would you like to be friends with Young Ju? Why or why not? Write a good paragraph explaining your ideas.
