Each unit theme has been drawn from the UN Millenium Development Goals
A unit question gives structure to the work
The subject focus and approaches to learning are clearly explained in student-friendly language

‘Starting points’ offer engaging background information
Students are given the opportunity to think about the issue from different perspectives

‘Our project plan’ pages introduce the specific project the students will undertake to answer the unit question - giving lots of support
‘Project evaluation’ pages offer opportunities for self-assessment and reflection

‘Moving on’ pages offer extension ideas to develop the subject further if time