| Curriculum is ambitious and gives all learners the knowledge and cultural capital they need to succeed in life | The variety in Oxford Reading Tree gives children a wide breadth of reading experience and the opportunity to develop knowledge and cultural capital.

inFact is designed to teach children something that they don’t already know. A wide range of topics gives children a base of knowledge that otherwise would be beyond their experience. Cross-curricular links in each book connect topics with pupils' knowledge in the wider curriculum.

Traditional Tales bring together stories from around the world that children can read themselves. The series introduces children to a rich literary heritage and embeds the conventions and language of traditional tales and storytelling from the earliest levels.

Explore with Biff, Chip and Kipper offers topic-linked pairs of non-fiction and character fiction to help children develop a love of reading across both text types. Each pair of books supports the wider curriculum in Science, Geography, History and Art through carefully chosen cross-curricular topics. |
| The curriculum is coherently planned and sequenced towards cumulatively sufficient knowledge and skills for future learning | Oxford Reading Tree is underpinned by Oxford’s expertly constructed and well-established levelling system – the Oxford Levels. The carefully levelled independent reading resources develop reading, vocabulary and comprehension. The Oxford Levels offer clear progression in developing literacy skills and a love of reading. The progression complements a well-planned curriculum.

Detailed teaching notes (free on Oxford Owl) for every Oxford Reading Tree title can be used for curriculum planning and implementation. |
| Resources and materials do not create unnecessary workload for staff | Detailed teaching notes (free on Oxford Owl) for every Oxford Reading Tree title provide guidance on independent and guided reading, speaking and listening, and writing. These can be used for curriculum planning and implementation.

Explore with Biff, Chip and Kipper includes Handbooks for each year group providing series guidance and worksheets. They focus on language and comprehension, enabling children to progress from Oxford Levels 1-9.

The Traditional Tales Handbook focuses on comprehension as well as oral and written retellings to enhance children’s appreciation and understanding of the stories. Storyteller videos support speaking and listening, and understanding of text structure.

The Story Sparks Handbooks include worksheets and focus on comprehension strategies, allowing pupils to develop key reading skills as they progress from Oxford Levels 1-11.

The All Stars Handbook offers activity sheets for every book in the series for independent and take-home practice. |
