How many children are here today?
How many children are having school dinner?
Print out the photos on the previous page then cut out the template below and ask each child to colour one of the circles. Once all the children have done this write the answer to the 'how many...?' questions in the white box. Alternatively stick real Numicon 10-shapes over the template and ask the children to place a Numicon Peg each in one of the holes.