RSC School Shakespeare

Discover, connect, inspire

Working in partnership with the RSC, this brand new series offers your students a unique and exciting insight into the plays and world of William Shakespeare.

www.oxfordsecondary.co.uk/rsc
An inspirational introduction to Shakespeare at Key Stage 3

Developed in partnership with the RSC, this brand new series brings Shakespeare’s plays to life in the classroom and helps students establish a deeper understanding and lasting appreciation of his work.

Discover, connect, inspire

Encourage your 11- to 14-year-old students to discover Shakespeare’s plays, using proven approaches and tools that teachers can trust will work in the classroom.

Help to establish connections with the written texts and the plays in performance through the clear and accessible layout, vibrant performance images and motivational activities.

Inspire confidence in students as they read and handle Shakespeare’s plays throughout all stages of study.

Performance photos

The RSC School Shakespeare Student Editions include a wealth of photographs from a range of real RSC productions. The vibrant and inspiring photographs illustrate the action and help bring the text on the page to life.

"An actor once described the rehearsal room to me as a ‘place of possibilities.’ I think that’s also a wonderful description to apply to a classroom and it’s what we hope our new RSC School Shakespeare editions help to create.”

Jacqui O’Hanlon
RSC Director of Education
For every scene in the RSC School Shakespeare series we have provided insight into RSC rehearsal practice, so that students can link the work they are doing in the classroom to the work that is done by actors, directors and designers. We hope that students will see themselves as fellow artists, working alongside the professionals, exploring the play in a similar way.

Jacqui O’Hanlon
RSC Director of Education
The Teacher Guides support teachers in delivering each play through:

- Clear explanation of the RSC’s active approach to Shakespeare
- Practical classroom-management tips
- Insight into the RSC rehearsal room
- Page-specific links to the activities in the play editions
