¡Descubre el mundo hispanohablante!

Match the facts with the locations

1. This city is at the end of the Camino de Santiago, a walking route for pilgrims and travellers – the most popular route is 500 miles long

2. This city hosts the gigantic Guggenheim Museum, which, among other pieces of art, boasts a huge puppy made of 40,000 living flowers

3. This is the capital city of Spain and is home to two of the most successful European football teams, one of which is nicknamed the meringues

4. This city is the birthplace of paella – a rice dish cooked in a large pan that can be made with lots of ingredients like seafood and vegetables

5. Las Fallas is a festival that takes place in this city every year in March where people make huge papier-mâché figures which they burn at the end of the celebrations

6. The name of this country comes from the Latin word for silver because the country has historically been associated with the precious metal

7. This country is well known for salsa, but did you know it also has the biggest ballet school in the world?

8. Chapulines (crickets) are popular snacks in some areas of this country as snacks or fajita and taco fillings... ¡delicioso!

9. This country is home to the Catatumbo Lightning, also known as the everlasting storm because there is an average of 260 lightning storm days every year!

10. You can find the start of the Amazon River in this country, not to mention the ancient Inca ruins of Machu Picchu

11. Nobel Prize for Literature winner Pablo Neruda was born in this country
This country does not have a military, and many follow a pura vida lifestyle, meaning a relaxed, simple life.

This country has a unique take on road safety – in the city of La Paz, people dressed as zebras help children to cross the road!

The motto of this country is Libertad o Muerte.

These islands are part of Ecuador and they are famous for being home to giant tortoise that can live to well over 100.

This country is named after the Spanish word for equator.

The name of this country means land of the trees.

The flag of this country is the only flag in the world to use an image of a Bible.

Spanish is this country’s second most popular language after English!

In this city, work on the famous Sagrada Familia cathedral by Antoni Gaudi began construction in 1882, and it’s still not finished!

These islands are part of Chile and is famous for famous for enormous stone statues called moai.

The capital city of this country is Asunción, meaning ascension or assumption in Spanish.

This country is known as the Land of Volcanoes due to its frequent earthquakes and volcanic activity.

The national bird of this country is the scarlet macaw, a bird which was considered sacred by the Mayans.

This country has the largest lake in Central America – a lake which has more than 430 islands.

This is the only country in the world where you can watch the sun rise over the Pacific and set over the Atlantic.

Julio Garavito Armero, a famous astronomer from this country has a crater on the moon named after him!
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A</th>
<th>Barcelona</th>
<th>Mexico</th>
<th>J</th>
<th>Isla de Pascua</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Uruguay</td>
<td>Paraguay</td>
<td>K</td>
<td>Costa Rica</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Argentina</td>
<td>Perú</td>
<td>L</td>
<td>Bilbao</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Valencia</td>
<td>Guatemala</td>
<td>M</td>
<td>Honduras</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E</td>
<td>Cuba</td>
<td>Madrid</td>
<td>N</td>
<td>Panamá</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>Nicaragua</td>
<td>Chile</td>
<td>Ñ</td>
<td>Sevilla</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>G</td>
<td>Bolivia</td>
<td>Ecuador</td>
<td>O</td>
<td>Venezuela</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>H</td>
<td>Santiago de Compostela</td>
<td>Islas Galápagos</td>
<td>P</td>
<td>República Dominicana</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>Colombia</td>
<td>El Salvador</td>
<td>Q</td>
<td>Estados Unidos</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

www.oxfordsecondary.co.uk/claro